PRETTY WEDDING IN OAK LANE

Miss Elma Windisch Bride of Mr. Charles Taylor—Halkett-Bacon Nuptials

A wedding of interest will be solemnized in the Fishman Memorial Church, Ninth and Locust streets, Oak Lane, at 7 o'clock this evening, when Miss Elma R. Windisch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Windisch, 6603 North Broad street, Oak Lane, will become the bride of Mr. Charles Taylor, of Mount Airy.

The Rev. Harvey W. Collier, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will perform the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. E. P. Kruse, of this city. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will be attired in ivory white satin, adorned with pearls. Her veil of tulle will extend to the end of a long court train, will be surmounted by a coronet of real lace and a cluster of orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

Mr. Frank Shepard Olmes, sister of the bride, will attend as matron of honor. She will wear a frock of gray canton crepe, trimmed with steel beads, and a hat of gray horse hair straw, with silver trimming and will carry a bouquet of spring flowers.

Mr. Albert Taylor, of New York, best man. The ushers will include Mr. Marcellus Hepp, Mr. Frank S. Olmes, Mr. Ellsworth H. Hulta, Mr. Samuel Hawley, Mr. Sherwood Hall and Mr. Clifford Hawley.

A reception will follow the ceremony at Connyl Cottage, the home of the bride's parents. On their return from a wedding trip the bride and bridegroom will spend the summer with the bride's parents.

HALKETT-BACON An interesting wedding will be solemnized at half after 7 o'clock this evening in St. James' Episcopal Church, Twenty-second and Walnut streets, when Miss Virginia Lee Bacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Coates, Jr., of 4216 Hazel avenue, will become the bride of Mr. James Spencer Halkett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Halkett, of the Gladstone Apartments.

The two small nieces of the bridegroom, Miss Margaret Halkett and Miss Adelaide Halkett, will attend as flower girls.

Mr. Walter A. Halkett will attend as best man. The ushers will include Mr. W. Freeman Kershaw, Mr. Merritt Trimble Rhodes, brother-in-law of the bride, Mr. Lincoln Parr, Jr., and Mr. J. Allen Carey.

A small reception will follow at the Beigravia for the families of the bride and bridegroom and the bridal party. On their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Halkett will live at the Gladstone.

MITCHELL-THOMPSON A wedding of interest will be that of Miss Mary Harris Thompson, niece of Mr. Thomas M. Thompson, of 4500 Spruce street, and Mr. Howard G. Mitchell, of Langhorne, Pa., which will be solemnized at 6 o'clock this evening in the Grace Episcopal Church, First street and Grand avenue. The Rev. Richard Harris, rector of the church, will perform the ceremony.

Mr. Leo Landau, of London, has arrived for a stay of one month. During his visit here he will live at the home of his mother, at 2414 North Thirtieth street.
